Capt. A. A. MCKINNEY, an old and respected citizen of Lamar County, died at 7 a.m. yesterday morning at his home 2.5 miles southeast of Biardstown. He had been in feeble health the past two or three years on account of his advancing age. He was born in North Carolina December 31, 1837; and was nearly 81 years old. At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted in a home company of volunteers, of which, he was chosen captain in the confederate army and was a gallant soldier. His company was a part of Stonewall Jackson's army and after the latter's death he was in General A. P. Hill's army. He had the misfortune, however, to be captured at Gettysburg and was a prisoner on Johnson Island for 18 months. After the close of the war, the deceased married Miss EMILY BRIAN in Spartanburg, SC, October 24, 1867, and they moved to Texas in 1869 and located near Biardstown, in which community he continued to reside up to the time of his death. He was a prominent farmer and was highly esteemed by his neighbors and acquaintances as an upright citizen. His wife died several years ago, but he survived by ten children, 6 sons and 4 daughters, as follows: JESSE and JOHN, Floydada; ED MCKINNEY, 3 miles N of Paris; WALTER, ROBERT and CLAUDE of Biardstown; Mrs. W. S. PRICE of Glory; Mrs. G. B. BROWN and Mrs. CAM BEAVER of Paris; and Miss NANNIE MCKINNEY, who stayed with him at the old home place.
