Probate, GA, Chattooga, Thomas Kendrick 1876

State of Georgia]
Chattooga County]

I THOMAS KENDRICK of the state and county aforesaid being at this writing of sound mind and memory do by these presents of my own free will and accord voluntarily execute, declare and publish this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all others former wills by me made.

Item 1st I desire that my executor is hereinafter named pay at once all my just debts and that my state as a whole be charged therewith.

Item 2nd I will and bequeath to my beloved wife MARTHA D. KENDRICK should she survive me all of my property of every character until her death unless there should be stock implements or other property that my executor hereinafter named may deem as necessary for carrying on the farm successfully or for her support and comfort and which event I desire that my executive hereinafter named sell all such surplus property at public or private sale as they may deem for the best interest of my estate or unless my wife MARTHA D. KENDRICK should marry again in which last-named event I desire and direct that all of my state should be sold at public or private sale as may deemed for the best interest of my estate by my executive hereinafter named and be distributed share and share alike among all of my lawful heirs.

Item 3rd I desire that at the death of my beloved wife MARTHA D. KENDRICK should she survive me that all of my property of every character be sold by my executor hereinafter named at public or private sale as they may deem for the best interest of my estate to be equally divided share and share alike to all my lawful heirs unless such sale and distribution should take place before the education of my son JAMES M. or GEORGE F. or either of them should be equal to that given by me to each of my other children in which event I desire and direct that a sufficient amount of money be set apart from the general corpus of my estate to give to them and equal education with my other children and I desire that such amount set apart be used in the way of their education nothing in this item to change the reading of Item 2nd.

Item 4th I constitute and appoint my beloved son WILLIAM S. KENDRICK and my son in law JOHN A. JONES executors of this my last will and testament this March 4th 1876.
