Issued the 11 day of July, 1834

Probate, NC, Northampton, ALLEN BRYAN 1815 1834

The answer of JOHN PEELLE to show much of the petition of REDDICK [BRYAN], MILES [BRYAN], JOSEPH [BRYAN], LEWIS BRYAN which he is advised is material for him the answereth that it is true as alleged in the petition of the plaintiffs.

That this defendant was appointed the administrator of ALLEN BRYAN the father of the plaintiff who departed this life sometime about the year 1815.

That as administrator he took it into his possession the personal estate of said ALLEN and sold the same at public auction after giving legal notice of said sale.

It is not true, however, that this defendant made no returns of his actings and doings as administrator, and that such returns were made as this defendant over, although the same may be by some accident be lost.

The defendant further answering sayeth, owing to the very long time since he completed the business entrusted in him in relation to the affairs of the intestate, he is now unable to give an account of the estate of the said ALLEN. But he answers that soon after the plaintiffs respectively came of age this defendant paid each of them their respective shares for which he now holds their receipts.

This defendant further saith the widow of the said ALLEN, his intestate CATHERINE his daughter (now alive and entitled in the course of distribution to a part of the estate of the said ALLEN) and he submits that unless they be made parties to this petition the case of the plaintiffs can not be sustained.

He prays therefore, that he may be dismissed with his costs.

June Term 1834

The answer of JOHN PEELLE to so much of the petition of REDDICK [BRYAN], MILES [BRYAN], and JOSEPH [BRYAN] & LEWIS BRYAN which he is advised his material for him in answer saith:

That it is true as alleged in the petition of plaintiffs that this defendant was appointed administration of ALLEN BRYAN, the father of the plaintiffs, who departed this life sometime about the year 1815, that as administrator he took into his possession the personal estate of said ALLEN, sold the same at public auction after giving legal notice of said sale.

That it is not true however that this defendant made no return of his acting or doings as administrator and that such returns were made as this defendant avers also the same may be some accident, be lost.

This defendant further answering saying that owing to the very long time since he completed the business entrusted to him in relation to the affairs of his intestate he is now unable to give an account of the estate of the said ALLEN, but he aver that soon after the plaintiffs respectively came of age this defendant paid each of them their respective shares for which he now holds their receipts.

This defendant further saith the widow of the said ALLEN, his intestate, CATHERINE [BRYAN] his daughter (now above) submitted in the course of distribution to a part of the estate of the said ALLEN. He submits that unless they be made parties to this petition the case of the plaintiffs cannot be sustained.

He prays, therefore, that he may be dismissed with his costs.
