

Probate, SC, Spartanburg, James Camp Sarah Camp 1851

State of South Carolina]
Spartanburg District] To R BOWDEN
] Ordinary
]

The petitioner of THOMAS BRIAN showeth that JAMES CAMP, deceased, left at his death his Last Will and Testament which is now of record in the ordinary office. Said CAMP, Testator, in said will left to his wife during her life a portion of his property, who has since died and said property reverted back to the estate of the said JAMES CAMP, deceased, subject to the direction of said will.

The executor who qualified to carry said will into effect having also departed this life, the letter of administrator with the will assessed was granted to your petitioner therefore further showeth that he has fully caused the estate to be administrated and is prepared to account on settlement on the same, pray that the heirs at law be cited to appear and show cause if any why said estate should not be settled and the assets ordered to be disposed of according to the law - this 24th December 1852.
