The petition of JAMES BRIAN executor of Mrs. MARY BRIAN showeth that she previous to her death made a last will and testament and appointed him her executor leaving a considerable personal property devising him to divide the same or so therefore in order to comply with said request he therefore pray that you will grant him an order to sell said property for division as most of legatees live at a considerable distance and a division would be almost impractical without considerable delay and even then the property might have to be sold to make said division.

Your petitioner will ever pray & C.
