North Carolina Supreme Court Case Files, Case #160 - Bryan vs Griffin (1818)
N.C. Archives

A number of people have "discovered" this case and have done abstracts including Clifford S. Dwyer of Florida; however, the person who provided the information this abstract came from is unknown. To all who have gone through the Supreme Court Cases our many thanks. The spelling of some of the names are open to interpretation of the reader of the original documents. I have put some changes that I think may be correct in brackets.

To the Honourable the Judge of the Court of Equity for the County of Johnston:

"That Moses Griffin late of Craven County decd. in the month of (blank) in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen seized and possessed of a large real and personal estate, leaving a last will and testament----"

NOTE: Among other items in the Will was money for a free school in Craven County; however, it appears the relatives contested the Will.

"Your orators further shew unto your honour that the said Moses Griffin left no issue, or brother or sister, nor the issue of any brother or sister or Uncle or Aunt, and that the real estate of said Moses Griffin being his own acquisition, his next collateral relations the decendants (sic) of the Uncles and Aunts of the said Moses Griffin as well of the paternal as of the maternal side are his heirs at law, and the children of the uncles and Aunts of the said Moses Griffin are his next of kin. The said Moses Griffin was the son of Solomon Griffin and Sarah (Bryan) his wife."

"The Brothers of Solomon Griffin the father of said Moses Griffin were Jonas Griffin and Benjamin Griffin. The only sister was Ann who was the wife of William Coward all of whom are dead leaving issue."

NOTE: As this is a long case it is condensed from several paragraphs and last names are left out unless different from the parents.

The Brothers and Sisters of Sarah Griffin the Mother of Moses Griffin were Lewis Bryan, Joanna Bryan, Mary Bryan, Elizabeth Bryan and Alice Bryan all of whom are dead leaving issue, so that the real estate of the said Moses Griffin descended one eighth each to the descendants of Jonas Griffin, the descendants of Benjamin Griffin, the descendants of Ann Coward, the descendants of Lewis Bryan, the descendants of Mary Bryan, the descendants of Elizabeth Bryan, and the descendants of Alice Bryan or if the paternal line be preferred when the estate is acquired by the person from whom it is claimed then it descended one third each to the descendants of Jonas Griffin, the descendants of Benjamin Griffin and the descendants of Ann Coward.

The said Alice Bryan was the wife of Jonas Griffin. Mary Bryan was the wife of Benjamin Griffin. Joanna Bryan married Daniel Vendrick. Elizabeth Bryan married John Hart.

NOTES ON SOME OF THE FAMILIES IN THE GRIFFIN/BRYAN CASE

GRIFFIN - The book, "Along the Neuse: The Craven Bryan Griffin Family" by Ray Griffin offers an extensive and well documented look at the descendants of Benjamin Griffin. In addition, Ray Griffin is continuing to look for the ancestors of this Griffin family.

BRYAN - Much has been written about this family and most is in conflict. It is possible that William Bryan, father of Elizabeth who md Hugh Pugh of Greene County, was a brother of the early John in this lawsuit. Hugh and Elizabeth Bryan Pugh's daughter Rachel married Francis Kilpatrick of the lawsuit.

HOLLOWAY - There is a Court Equity Case for the estate settlement in Sumter County, S. C. of Thomas Holloway who formerly lived in Dobbs/Lenoir County. I have read this case on microfilm. He had no children and his estate was divided nine ways among his brothers and sisters. William and John Holloway of this suit were the brothers of this Thomas. A sister was Isabella who married Francis Nunn III of Craven/Lenoir County. Francis Nunn and his family lived close to the Griffin's as well as the Holloways. In the Civil Action Cases of the Superior Court of Craven County on 24 Jan 1803 - p 66 - William Nunn vs Samuel and Benjamin Griffin - trespass and assault and battery. William Nunn was a son of Francis and Isabella Holloway Nunn. In Ray Griffin's Book he referenced a sell of property between Francis Nunn (or) and Benjamin Griffin (ee). John Holloway, brother of the dec Thomas, was d by 1818. In 1769 he lived in New Bern and had the following heirs - James, John, Edward, and Lizy who md a Jones. William Holloway, a brother of Thomas, was also dec. There is no doubt all these families are the same; however, there are differences between the NC Supreme Court case, the SC Court Equity case, and a Holloway Bible from Georgia. I have not been able to figure it out, but at least one of these is missing a generation.

KILPATRICK - Chloe Coward md William Kilpatrick Sr. son of Alexander and Elizabeth Easley Kilpatrick. The latter were the first of this family into Craven/Dobbs County. William had a brother John d with a Will 1760 who md Elizabeth - no issue; probably several sisters; and a brother Easley or Isler who md Sarah. Easley had at least the following children - Rachel, Easley and John - both of the sons moved to South Carolina. Easley Sr.'s widow, Sarah also had a son James Phillips (on the wrong side of the sheets) by James Phillips, Sr. William Kilpatrick Sr. appears to have been married twice as there is at least one proven son who was not mentioned in this suit - Warre b by 1760 md 1st Polly McKennie and 2nd Lovicy. He also appears to have had another son Easley md Sarah Fife who may have moved to Duplin County. The children of William and his wife Chloe Coward were Chloe who appears not to have married: William Jr. b by 1779 d 1811-1816 who md Penelope Pugh daughter of Hugh and Elizabeth Bryan Pugh - issue 1. Bryan md Elizabeth Burney daughter of Simon and Louisa Pugh Burney 2. John J. Kilpatrick who md Sarah ? 3. Chloe md ? Bruton 4. George md Mary Hooker 5. Penelope 6. Barbara B.: Alexander Kilpatrick b by 1772 md Susan - only known child Alexander: Francis b 1774 d 1814 md Rachel Pugh daughter of Hugh and Elizabeth Bryan Pugh. All of his issue are not known. The only ones that can be proven are Warren W. md Mary Ann Lovick and Louisa who md Lemuel Hardy Mewborn. Other possible children were Sarah who md William Augustus Mosely, Mary who md Wiley Kilpatrick, William B. Kilpatrick who md Sallie Baker and maybe James M. who md Elizabeth Moseley: Charity Coward md

Sampson Lane of Wayne County.

Additional information on this family may be found in the booklet located at Lenoir County Community College "Descendants of Lemuel Hardy and Louisa Kilpatrick Mewborn". There is an extensive study of the Kilpatrick lines as well as information on allied families of Pittman, Moseley, and Albritton.
