BY Benjamin Chambers ————— Esquire,

Ordinary of York ————— District.

TO Edmund Acock

WHEREAS William Rivers ————— late of the State & District aforesaid deceased, lately died intestate, having whilst he lived, and at the time of his death, divers goods, rights and credits, within the aforesaid; by means whereof the full disposition and power of granting the Administration of all and singular the goods, rights and credits of the said deceased, and also auditing the accounts, calculations and reckonings of the said Administration and a final dismission of the same, to me is manifestly known to belong. I desiring that the goods, rights and credits of the said deceased, may be well and truly administered, converted and disposed of, do hereby grant unto the said

Edmund
Acock

in whose fidelity, in this behalf, I very much confide, full power by the tenor of these presents, to administer the goods, rights and credits of the said deceased, which to him in his life-time, and at the time of his death, did belong; and to ask, levy, recover and receive the same, and to pay the debts in which the deceased stood obliged, so far forth as his goods, rights and credits will extend, according to their rate and order of law; being first sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, to make a true and perfect inventory thereof, and to exhibit the same into the Ordinary's office, in York

Ville in order to be recorded, on or before the first day of May now next ensuing; and to render a just and true account, calculation and reckoning of the said administration, when thereunto required:
And I ordain, depute and constitute you, the said

Edmund
Acock

Administrator of all and singular the goods, rights and credits of the said deceased.

In Testimony whreof, I have hereunto set my hand and Seal the Eleventh Day of February ————— Anno Domini, 1818 and in the forty-second Year of American Independence.
