

#9203R Third Cut

In the name of God, Amen. I Simon Hager, of the County of Lincoln, State of North Carolina, being weak and feeble of body, but of sound and disposing mind, memory and Judgment, (for which blessing I desire to return my most devout acknowledgements to the great Giver of good) have Judged it proper while possessed of the use of reason, so to dispose of my worldly estate, as to me appears just and reasonable; and do therefore make, publish & declare my last will and testament in manner & form following, hereby revoking all former will or wills by me heretofore made.

First. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth Hager, Twelve acres of land, including my dwelling house, out buildings & spring, during her natural life, and all my household and kitchen furniture, including beds chests, tables & all, and every thing whatsoever that may be in the house belonging to me, together with a bay mare called Fance, and her choice of two cows out of the stock, and all my stock of hogs & sheep, together with the entire benefit of the orchard & fruit trees.

I give & bequeath to my son, Frederic Hager the sum of Five Dollars. I give and bequeath to John Elders the sum of one Dollar. I give and bequeath to my daughter Catharina Hager my Loom and all the tacklings belonging thereto, together with the privilege of a residence or home on my land so long as she remains unmarried.

I give, devise & bequeath to my sons, John & William Hager all the lands belonging to me, to be equally divided between them, the upper part of the plantation on which I now live, to be laid off for John Hager, and the lower part for William. The tract containing one hundred & ninety five acres adjoining James Brown to be equally divided between the said John & William Hager.

I further direct and order that the said John and William Hager shall equally provide yearly for their mothers support the following articles, namely Eight Bushels of Wheat, Twenty bushels of Corn, one hundred weight of Pork, and ten pounds of Coffee and ten pounds of Sugar.

I further give & bequeath to my sons John and William Hager my Waggon, gears and farming utensils, either as Joint property, or to be equally shared between them. I also devise & bequeath unto John & William Hager in equal parts a tract of land adjoining Jacob Rudisill containing fifty Acres for which I gave an obligation to convey to my son Frederic Hager; on condition the said John and William Hager, pay to Frederic Hager the sum of Twenty Dollars which he the said Frederic Hager has agreed to receive as compensation for the same.

I give and bequeath to my daughters Barbara Elders, Sarah Frost, Mary Rudisill & Catherine Hager the sum of five Dollars each, together with an equal share of whatever property may remain after my wifes death, excepting the land, which shall belong to my son William. The other property to be sold & divided as above directed.

I likewise constitute, make and ordain my son in law John Rudisill & Abrahm Maury Joint Executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this 7th day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty eight.
