Dear Sir

I send my nephew Churchill Jones with the will & Protest Ther- which I wish to set aside if I can. It has but two witnesses and the law requires three and on that ground I propose to break it. Protest Ther was my relation and tenant. He died last Spring leaving a wife and no children and she died last Monday.

Hyden H. Doan who is the only one concerned to make the will stand good is anxious to have the matter concluded if the will can be broken and the estate withdrawn as soon as possible. The widow has no relations here.

She has some in North Carolina but I believe they have left the State.

I want to sell the property as soon as I return from the Legislature and wish you to take all the measures that can be taken in my absence. I will be with you must. I will be with you.

refusing then. ~~incumbent~~ to appear before you and either consent ~~or~~ or make their objection to the breaking of the will

I can and will appear by attorney if one is necessary but you know the ground on which I proceed as to what I am to do write me instructions and I will follow them. The notice for the sale of the property could be published so that it might take place ~~before~~ the 1st of January and I could give bond and have a valuation at any ^{time} preceding the sale

My business urges me to at this time that I would not have without great inconvenience as I also set out on Friday next for London

Yours with great Respect J W Davis

You of course will break the will
