

Descendants of JACOB MAUNEY, Jr.

Generation No. 2

2. ISAAC2 MAUNEY (JACOB1) was born 1793 in Lincoln County, North Carolina, and died 1874 in Cherokee County, North Carolina. He married (1) SARAH RUSH 29 September 1814 in Lincoln County, North Carolina, daughter of CHARLES RUSH and MARY BUSHONG. She was born Abt. 1793 in Lincoln County, North Carolina, and died Aft. 1829 in Cherokee County, North Carolina. He married (2) KAREN Aft. 1829. She died Unknown. He married (3) EMILY ARMSTRONG Aft. 1830, daughter of MARY ARMSTRONG. She died Unknown.

Notes for ISAAC MAUNEY: ISAAC and his three wives are buried in the family cemetery on his plantation between Murphy and Andrews, North Carolina. He moved to Macon County, North Carolina about 1818 and to Cherokee County about 1840. There was a board in the Family Cemetery that finally rotted and fell apart but carved into it was, "To those kind to clean the cemetery, preserve trees and shrubs for shade." Excerpts copied from MARGARET WALKER FREEL's history "Our Heritage, The People of Cherokee County, North Carolina, 1540-1955 --- published by the Miller Printing Company, Asheville, North Carolina. From Chapter 16, Cherokee County Family Bible, page 310.

"MAUNEY (E. S. MAUNEY) ISAAC MAUNEY, who lived on Valley River at what is today the "Wood Place" was born in Tryon (now Lincoln) County, North Carolina. His father was "JACOB MOONY, Jr." a signer of Tryon County Declaration of Independence in August following Mecklenburg, in May 1775. ISAAC married SARAH, daughter of GEORGE RUSH (German descent) whose father, CHARLES RUSH, first settled in Pennsylvania, thence to the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia. It is thought he came from Alsace - Lorraine, France.

In 1818, ISAAC MAUNEY and family, together with his father-in-law, GEORGE RUSH and clan, left Lincoln and came to Macon County, North Carolina and about 1840 removed his family to Valley River, Cherokee County. This remained his home until his death in the 1870's. There were seven children born to this union. ISAAC married three times. "His second wife is known only as KARON. His third wife was EMILY ARMSTRONG from the East, who tradition has it, danced with Lafayette on his visit to the U.S. in 1824. No issue by either."

ISAAC was a farmer and owned a number of slaves before the War Between the States. After their freedom, for their faithfulness, some were given land high up on the MAUNEY plantation. Many members of his family are buried with him and his three wives in the family plot on the plantation.

Many of his descendants have attained distinction in the fields of education, law, medicine and public service, as well as in the humbler vocations of life.

Descendants of JACOB MAUNEY, Jr.

In Chapter 9 of this same book, p. 135, is the Will of ISAAC MAUNEY -- dated 27 October, 1875 -

ISAAC MAUNEY -- being of sound mind --- do make this my last will and Testament ---

Secondly, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife EMILY all my household and kitchen furniture, all my hogs, cattle, horses, and other live stock and farming implements

Thirdly, I will and bequeath to my beloved sons AMBROSE H. MAUNEY, SYLVANUS MAUNEY, and GEORGE R. MAUNEY, to them and their heirs, all my real estate in the said county of Cherokee ---

Fourth, having heretofore advanced Negroes and other property to my son LUIS MAUNEY and to my daughters Mrs. CELINA MORROW, (dec'd) wife of E. G. MORROW, and MARY MALENDIA, wife or widow of ALEXANDER ANGEL, (dec'd), I hereby declare that they and each of them are not entitled to anything more of my estate, nor their heirs.

Lastly, I hereby will and appoint my trusty friends AMBROSE H. MAUNEY and JOSEPH KEENER to execute ---

Attest: ISAAC MAUNEY, N. G. HOWELL, J. H. HYATT

Descendants of JACOB MAUNEY, Jr.

Marriage Notes for JACOB MAUNEY and SUSAN JENKINS: After their marriage JACOB MAUNEY, III and SUSANNA JENKINS MAUNEY settled on Crooked Run Creek between Knob Creek and Broad River in Rutherford County (Now Cleveland County). This is about halfway between Lincolnton and Rutherfordton near the present town of Lawndale.

He operated an inn and livery stable for the benefit of travelers during the stagecoach days. He also operated a tan-yard, a grist mill and a liquor distillery. KISTLER's Church stands at a distance of about a city block from the location of these old plants. He owned twenty (20) slaves and about 2000 acres of land, most of it acquired by State Grants or from the King of England. He died in 1827 when about 40 years of age. He and his wife were buried on a little round knoll on the west side of Crooked Run Creek near the old residence location. They have no tombstones. He was attended by Dr. MAUNEY (Dr. GEORGE of VALENTINE MAUNEY) from Lincoln County during his last illness. His will was written by Esquire Lucas while he was dying. PETER MAUNEY was the only son. Six daughters are mentioned in the will. ANNAH, who married JACOB CARPENTER, was not mentioned but she is given in all lists of his children. (See "Our Kin" page 506). Information of the above was supplied by Mr. P. MARVIN MAUNEY, grandson of PETER and son of ISAAC. He worked in Kings Mountain and boarded at our home when I was a child (BONNIE MAUNEY SUMMERS). His will is on record in Rutherford County, October - November, 1827.
