History, Three Mauney Families

"Remember the days of old; consider the years of many generations; ask thy father and he will show thee; thy elders and they will tell thee."

Deut. 32-7

"It is wise for us to recur to the history of our ancestors. Those who, regardless of their ancestors - do not look upon themselves as a link connecting the past with the future in the transmission of life from their ancestors to their posterity, do not perform their duty to the world - We are true to ourselves only when we act with pride for the blood we inherit, and which we are to transmit to those who shall soon fill our places. There is a moral and philosophical respect for our ancestors which elevates character and improves the heart."

Daniel Webster

Lord, give me the strength of the pioneer,
And the faith of his hardy soul.
Provide me with courage to persevere,
Make me fight till I meet my goal.

Let weaklings indulge in a sheltered life
Where they curse when their luck goes bad;
But, fit for battle with storm and strife,
Give me brawn like my fathers had.

History, Three Mauney Families

To my father whose profound interest in his family lineage gave me the desire to preserve and continue his effort.

The first move to compile a record of the Mauney Family in North Carolina was made in 1916 when W. A. Mauney, through letters and newspaper notices, extended a cordial invitation to the many descendants of Christian Mauney to gather for a reunion at the site of Christian Mauney's pioneer home which was also the site of Tryon and Lincoln Co. Courts from 1774 until January 1783.

On Saturday the 19th of August at the site of old Tryon Court-house which is midway between Bessemer City and Cherryville, there will be a reunion of the descendants of Christian Mauney, one of the pioneers from Pennsylvania who migrated here before the Revolutionary War. Everybody come and let us have the most interesting gathering ever held in this section. A biographical sketch of all the families from the great, great grandfather down is being prepared and will be read.

W. A. Mauney

Hundreds of relatives and friends responded to the invitation and at the end of a most enjoyable day voted to make the reunion an annual affair.

The historical address was delivered by Hon. Alfred Nixon of Lincoln. Mr. Mauney read the genealogical sketch which he had prepared. He was named chairman of the group which was later known as the Christian Mauney Memorial Association and reunions were held until 1934; however after Mr. Mauney's death in 1929, the attendance grew smaller because of lack of interest and Leadership.

In 1918 the Mauney Memorial Association through the contributions of relatives and friends was able to buy four acres of land and, on this site, erect a granite boulder with two bronze markers. This monument was unveiled at the reunion on September 20, 1919. The speaker for the occasion was Hon. O. Max Gardner, then Lieut Gov. of North Carolina. The two bronze, tablets commemorate four historic facts:

1. The home of Christian Mauney.
2. The site of Tryon County Courts, 1774-1779, and then of Lincoln Courts till Jan. 1783.
3. The encampment of Lord Cornwallis' Army enroute to Virginia, 1780-1781.
4. The place of the signing of the Tryon Association, August 14, 1775, with names of the signers. The second marker, commemorating the Tryon Association was given by the Col. Frederick Hambright Chapter, D. A. R. Kings Mt., North Carolina.

The historical address given by Hon. A. Nixon at the first reunion was printed by his son, Joe R. Nixon, in pamphlet form and is a valuable reference for the Mauney family, including Valentine and Jacob, Jr., brothers of Christian; and also for early county history.

This Mauney Family Record was begun as a compilation of the descendants of Christian Mauney, the ancestor of William Andrew Mauney. However, since Valentine and Jacob Mauney (known as Jacob Moony, Jr.) were Christian's brothers and the three families were so closely associated, geographically and socially, as well as by blood ties, it has been the natural and easy procedure to record information on all three lines. The descendants of ail three brothers are therefore included in this genealogy, but the Christian Mauney family is placed first.

In the Court Records of Lincoln Co. are found the Wills of the three brothers and these provide a good beginning for outlining the families:

Christian Mauney wife, Caty 1741 - 1815 Will dated July 7, 1814	Valentine Mauney wife, Catherine 1737 - 1805 Will dated May 27, 1804	Jacob Mauney wife, Nancy 1734 (?) - 1813 Will dated July 3, 1812
Names of children John George Jacob Christian, Jr. Peter Michael Caty Betsy Marget Sally Polly Barbara, wife of Neil McCarty	Names of children Adam Sarah Valentine, Jr. Christian George Jacob Michael Peter	Names of children Fanny Peter Catherine Elizabeth Barbara Abraham Isaac Jacob Mary Susannah Sarah Peggie (dec.), wife of Joshua Van Dyke

These Mauney came to Tryon County (now Lincoln) between 1760-70. Valentine received his first land grant in 1762; Jacob in 1763; and Christian in 1768.

History, Three Mauney Families

William Andrew Mauney

William Andrew Mauney was born December 18, 1841, on a farm in the Muddy Fork section of Cleveland Co., North Carolina. This was the home-site of his father David Mauney and about four miles from Cherryville.

His early education was in the old field school at Caperneum near Waco.

At sixteen years of age he went to Catawba County near Grace Lutheran Church to attend a school known as Lohr's School taught by Rev. A. R. Bennick. The next year he returned to this school then taught by James E. Seneca; and the following year he attended the Hoover School in Lincoln Co. taught by Rev. Jeremiah Ingold.

He began teaching at fifteen years when he conducted a two months school at the Lackey school house. At sixteen he taught a four months school at the Morrison school in Cherryville. At seventeen he taught at Fairview in Gaston Co., NC near Farnsworth store. At eighteen and nineteen he taught at Long Creek school near the present James F. Weir home place.

On August 6, 1861 he volunteered and enlisted in the state's service. At Brevard's Station under T. H. Edwards, Captain of Gaston Co., NC Invincibles. This company was sent to High Point for military instruction where it became Co. B of the 28th NC regiment formed in Sept. 1861. After a short time this regiment was sent to Wilmington into winter-quarters. On October 2, William Andrew Mauney was made sergeant by Lt. Col. Thomas Lowe. Six days later he was appointed commissary sergeant by Col. James H. Lane.

The regiment was ordered to New Bern at the time of the battle there and then retreated to Kinston where it remained till April. The troops were then sent to Virginia (1862) and encamped on the Rapidan River. At the Battle of Hanover Court House in May, he was captured with forty-five others of the company and sent to prison in Castle Williams, Governor's Island, N. Y.

He was transferred to Fort Delaware and on July 10, 1862 sent to Richmond to be exchanged. He returned to his own regiment at Orange Court House.

At the time of the surrender, April 1865, he was near South Boston, Virginia. In the confusion the commissary wagon train was scattered from the army. He went to Greensboro, NC and in the meantime General Johnston surrendered. He came to Charlotte and was placed in General Hoke's Office to give orders for Johnston's army as it passed through. After a week he was dismissed from the army and detailed to take a horse to Lincolnton as he went to his own home. At Tuckasee Ford of the Catawba he swam across and spent the night at the home of Alfred Rhyne.

_ At home he faced the hard days of Reconstruction. He farmed, surveyed, and taught school till 1873. In 1868, he married Susan Ramseur and went to live on the Dameron farm near Shelby. Here his first children were born.

In 1873 (Easter Monday) he came to Kings Mt., then called White Plains, to make his home. Here he and his brother, Jacob S. Mauney, became merchants and farmers. In 1888 he and others built the first cotton mill of the town they were helping to establish. During his remaining life time he was identified with practically every line of enterprise in the town. He was public spirited and held practically every office of honor the town had to offer.

He was the first mayor and the first postmaster holding the latter place seventeen years. He was Representative to the NC legislature from Cleveland County in 1917 and State Senator from the 33rd District in 1907.

A Lutheran by faith, he was deeply interested in the religious growth of the community. About 1876 he with others organized St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church holding services in a small house where Mauney Memorial Library now stands and in 1879 built a church at the present site. This building has been remodeled and is now the nucleus of the present church.

He served continuously as elder from February 1, 1880 till May 28, 1905 and thereafter alternated the office with his brother every two years till death. He was greatly interested in the general work of the church and contributed generously to many churches, mission causes and educational institutions of his denomination.

His first wife died in 1886. In 1894 he married Candace Miller. Five children grew to maturity. By the first wife were Ida Pauline (Neisler), Laura Ella (Ridenhour), and David Hunter Mauney; by Candace Miller Mauney - Bonnie Eloise (summers) b. January 26, 1897 and Virginia Eilleen (Herndon) b. July 31, 1900.

Andrew Mauney loved people and enjoyed their company and the opportunity to show kindness and friendship. He had a keen sense of humor, a "young" mind and a great love for children and youth. He retained his alert mind and deep interest in everything until his death. He enjoyed visiting his friends and traveling to see things. During his middle life he made several lengthy trips to different sections of the country. In his declining years he enjoyed short automobile trips. He had many visitors in his home and was ever loyal to his kindred.

Due to his advancing age he partially retired from business about 1925. In December 1927 he had a severe attack of flu from which he never regained his strength. On April 9, 1928 he was taken to the Charlotte Sanatorium where it was learned he had cancer of the stomach. There he remained until his death about 1:00 A.M. on May 15th.

His funeral was conducted in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church May 16th at 10:30 A.M. by the pastor, Rev. Arthur M. Huffman and Dr. H. B. Schaeffer of Lenoir-Rhyne College. His body was laid away in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Information on the origin and meaning of the name Mauney

This was received from Arthur L. Campbell
5066 Romaine Street
Los Angeles 29, California
December 10, 1960

An article on the origin and meaning of family names had appeared in the Daughter of the American Revolution earlier in 1960 and the following was received from him in answer to my letter requesting the information:

"Mauney is an English name of seeming ultimate French origin, that is either from the French place name Monnaie (mint) or from 'la moigne' (monk). The progenitor of the Mauney line could, then have been a monk who renounced his vows and took unto himself a wife, or he could have been a Norman from Monnaie who crossed the Channel to England.

A third origin has been suggested the French 'mauvais nez' (crooked nose), but I can find no support for this theory. The first theory as to the Origin of the name is by far the most convincing. It is supported by the variant spelling Money, as well as that of Morney, Mouni, Moany, and Mooney.

I would not include Moon and Munn in the list of variant spellings of Mauney since they are place names, indicating 'from Moyon,' in France."

Baring-Gould in his family names and their story throws light on the name. See "Early French Names, Family Names and Their History (Story)" - by S. Baring-Gould, page 262.

MONEY. Money is a corruption of De Mauny. Sir Walter Manny or Mauny, afterwards Lord de Manny and founder of the Charter house, was one of the ablest of the soldiers of fortune under Edward III. His father was Jean Le Borge or the One-Eyed Lord of Mauny, near Valenciennes, who was killed in a private quarrel in the English camp before La Reole, on the Garonne, in 1327. Walter came to England in the train of Queen "Phillipa, who made him one of her Esquires and he was given the Governorship of Merioneth and the Keepership of Harlech Castle. He married Margaret, daughter and heiress of Thomas of Brotherton, second son of Edward I, but his only son fell down a well and was drowned in his father's lifetime. He also had one daughter who married John Hastings Earl of Pembroke. The English Moneys, consequently cannot derive from Walter de Manny, but almost surely from some of his attendants, natives of Mauney, who followed him in war and were settled by him on his estates in England. He died January 1372." (This book also says 'De' is usually used as a prefix to denote a location of a family.)

Another book, "Story of Family Names" - by Ferguson, gives about the same information with a reference to the name in America - "The English and American Maunys do not derive their origin from him (Sir Walter Mauny) but from some of his attendant native kin of Mauny, France."

"Memorials of the Huguenots in America" - by Rev. A. Stapleton and published by the Huguenot Publishing Co., Carlisle, Pa. (1901)

History, Three Mauney Families

EXPLANATION OF THE COAT OF ARMS OF THE MAUNEY FAMILY

In heraldry black signifies sorrow, sin, mourning and dignity.

Silver denotes purity eloquence, virginity and innocence.

Black and silver are called the colors of the Second Crusade and the combination is found in many ancient arms; silver for the purity of the motive and cause of the expedition and black is sorrow for its failure.

The cross in whatever its many forms is always a crusading emblem.

There are many forms of the cross in history and heraldry.

This is a very simple arms and therefore a very ancient one, as there is a saying among heraldists "the simpler the arms, the older the grant of the arms".

There is no motto with this coat of arms. This is due to the fact that the motto or War Cry (which the motto really is) was never popular in Continental countries and few mottoes are found upon Continental arms (see J. B. Reitstap's L'Armorial General, the official roll of Continental arms for this) and these few are confined to royal and semi-royal arms.

There is no crest to this arms. This is also due to its antiquity. The use of crests began with the use of visored helmets, that is helmets which hid the face. So long as the face was visible, knights did not need the crest for purposes of identification, even in the heat of battle. But when the visor came into use and the knight fought with his face hidden it was necessary to wear an identifying crest. Thus few crests were granted with arms prior to 1350.

The mantling or decorative matter around the shield has no especial shape. This is left to the taste and discretion of the artist. The only heraldic rule as to the mantle (also sometimes called a lambrequin) in British arms, was that it must be in the livery colors of the shield; i.e. the two first metals and / or colors mentioned in the blazon. In Continental arms this rule sometimes varied but where there was a variation, it is always so set forth in the blazon with the specific colors of the mantling given.

The mantle takes its name from a cloak or mantle which the mounted knight wore suspended from his helmet. This was to protect him, encased as he was in metal, from the summer's hot sun rays or the winter snows which would have fairly cooked or frozen him as the case might be. This mantle would become cut and slashed in combat and the knight was very proud of those rents. Only those who actually bear titles are entitled to display a helmet of other metal or in other position.

It is generally conceded, though not actually proven, that the first members of our Mauney family in America came in 1750.

In "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" (A Publication of the Original Lists of Arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia from 1727 to 1808, by Strassburger and Hinke) Vol. I page 440, is this record:

History, Three Mauney Families

(List 154C) (Foreigners imported in the Ship Phoenix, John Mason, Captain, from Rotterdam, but last from Cowes, August 28, 1750, 339 passengers.)

Jacob Muni, Jr.
Christian Muni
Jacob Muni, Senr.
Conrad Muni
Andreas Muni

When Strassburger and Hinke published their work, the first page of 100 names (List 154C) was missing from the original Pennsylvania records, but it was not lost when Rupp prepared his lists, "Collection of 30,000 Names", so from his work they supplied the 100 missing names. Among them were the five names of the Mauney group.

We know that only names of males 16 years of age and above were listed (unless specified), so we conclude Jacob Muni, Jr. was at least 16 (b. 1734) and Jacob Muni, Senr., 36-40 (b. 1710-14).

Christian, Valentine, and Jacob Mauney, Jr., early pioneers in Tryon Co., NC can be definitely placed as to birth and death dates by verified court and cemetery records- Christian, b. 1741 d. 1815; Valentine, B. 1737 d. 1805; and Jacob Jr., b. d. 1814. Accepting the birth date of 1734 for Jacob Muni, Jr., the immigrant to America in 1750, we have a strong probability the three were brothers.

Another list of German Arrivals we should consider as a possibility of our ancestors is in Vol. I, 300-4 of the same reference as above.

(List 84-A, B, and C.) Ship Lydia, James Allan, Master, Qualified Sept. 29, 1741. Palatine men's names listed and their ages.)

Jacob Many	50	(b. 1691) also spelled Mani
Jost Many	19	(b. 1722)
Hans Adam Many	16	(b. 1725)
Jacob Many	24	(b. 1717) also spelled Manie

If this were proven our family, the Jacob Many (b. 1717) most likely would be the progenitor of the three brothers who came to Tryon Co., NC

Also on this Ship Lydia were the following:

Peter Ecker	40	(b. 1701)
Christian Ecker	19	(b. 1722)
Peter Ecker ?	(16)	(b. 1725)

These are conceded to have been among the early Akers living in NC And the early records show a close relationship between Mauneys and Akers (Eckers).

If either of these groups were the Mauneys who are known to have migrated to North Carolina, where did they spend the interim between their arrival in Pennsylvania and their removal to North Carolina? I have spent much time and effort trying to trace their first years in America, but with no success.

In Pennsylvania I found the names Money, Muni, and Le Moyne. Through the early period of Virginia history there were Mooneys; also, the name was found in Indiana and Ohio. Even in North and South Carolina I have found Mauneys (Mooneys) which I have been unable to connect with our related branches.

History, Three Mauney Families

In Mecklenburg County Court, 1775 - Jane Muny, an orphan of John Muney, deceased, came into court and made choice of William Kerr for her guardian.

In York Co., SC an Anthony Mooney died in 1796 - no descendants known, but I have found that he was an acquaintance of Valentine.

In Rutherford Co., an Elizabeth Mauney married, about 1780, Benjamin Magness, son of the early well-known pioneer, Perrygreen Magness. She died before 1808.

There is a family headed by Adam Jackson Mauney, whose descendants claim he was born in Pennsylvania, 1818-19.

Also there are numerous Mauney names in the public records of Rutherford Co., NC and York Co., SC during and just after the Revolutionary War. Information from an application for pension of a John Mauney, b. 1761, states that he and several brothers named Daniel, David, Jonathan and James, were sons of a Jacob who resided in Rutherford County near the Burke county line about 1780. Some of the brothers were born in Pennsylvania.

The family data that I am preserving is based on true records and unrecorded information from reliable authorities. I hope through the years it will prove of real worth to those who seek to preserve their family lineage.

3. Jacob Mauney moved to Ohio. From what I can learn he must have been a good business man.)
4. Christian Mauney, Jr., I know little about, but my opinion is that he was not as robust a man as the other brothers and a rather quiet man.
5. Peter Mauney, my grandfather, was called 'Bull Peter'. I do not mind of seeing him, but am told he was a jolly man and loved to play pranks on children. He died suddenly (1840), and was found dead in bed.
6. Michael Mauney was nicknamed 'Bellows Mike' and was noted for his strong voice. In his time, the hogs ran in the woods and it was said you could hear him for miles calling his hogs.

Land Grants of Lincoln Co., NC 1779 - 1789

#105 Granted: Michael Eaker and Peter Rine, Trustees in Beaver Dam Congregation, or their successors, claiming 50 A of land for use of a meeting house and a graveyard for said congregation including where the Beaver Dam Meeting House now stands near the Little mountain on the waters of Beaver Dam and Long Creek.

Entered the 2nd March 1790.

The above grant proves that Beaver Dam congregation was in existence in 1790.

History, Three Mauney Families

Some History of Beaver Dam Lutheran Church (now St. Mark's)

Since there is no available record previous to the account of the first recorded Communion service, Oct. 17, 1819, with 55 communicants, the exact age of old Beaver Dam Church is not known, but it is reasonable to suppose that the congregation had been in existence for some time previous to this communion and it is conceded to be the third oldest Lutheran Church in Gaston Co., NC

The congregation first worshiped in an old log church located about a mile (or more) south of the present St. Mark's, and was known as Beaver Dam Lutheran Church. The old constitution written in English and German was drawn by the Rev. David Henkle and adopted by the congregation in May 1823.

In the record book containing the constitution is this statement 'church book bought by Jacob Aderholdt for the use of Beaver Dam congregation Apr. 25, 1819, cost $1.00. This throws some light upon the age of the congregation.

(This is taken from a short history of St. Mark's written 40 or 50 years ago.)

The congregation moved to the present site of St. Mark's in 1858, and then changed the name. The old cemetery was not used after that date. My family (Mauney) built a rock wall around the cemetery in 1948. My great, great grandfather Christian Mauney and his brother Jacob were bur. there, Christian died in 1815. Also my great grandfather, Peter Mauney, was bur. there is 1840. (B. M. S.)

History, Three Mauney Families

Christian Mauney

Christian Mauney is first mentioned in the public records of North Carolina when he received a royal grant of 200 acres of land in Tryon County on April 28, 1768. Since Tryon County was set up in 1768 from Mecklenburg, this grant was listed in the Secretary of State's office as being in Mecklenburg. This he sold, as shown by a deed dated Jan. 2, 1771 - "Christian Mauney, carpenter, to Joseph Hardin, 200 acres both sides of Knob Creek below the Cherokee path including the forks." On Dec. 8, 1770 he purchased 350 acres on the waters of Beaver Dam Creek "on the wagon road about three miles above Peter Akers" and this tract became his home. This location is on the present Bessemer City, Cherryville Highway opposite Tryon County High School.

Tryon County had no permanent court house until 1774 when this report was adopted at the July Sessions of the county court:

NC Tryon County - We, the commissioners appointed by the Act of Assembly for laying out and constituting and appointing the place whereon to erect and build the court house, prison and stocks of Tryon Co., are of the opinion that the place called the 'Cross Roads' on Christian Mauney's land between the heads of Long Creek, Muddy Creek and Beaver Dam Creek in the county aforesaid is most central and convenient for the inhabitants of this county. Therefore, agreeably to the directions of the said Act, we lay off, constitute and appoint said place as the most proper whereon to erect and build the court house, prison and stocks of the said county.

As witness our hands and seals, the 26th day of July, A. D., 1774.

Charles McLean
William Moore
John Hill
Christopher Carpenter

It was then ordered that the next court be held at the house of Christian Mauney on the cross roads of his land and this remained the site of the court for nine years, July 1774 till end of January 1783. A room in his log dwelling was used as a jail. These county courts convened quarterly without material changes in Lincoln Co. until 1868.

One of the first orders of the court at the Mauney home was to grant him a license to keep an Ordinary upon his promise to comply with the rules and ordinances of the Provincial Assembly. His bond of £30 was secured by Peter Plonk and Jacob Mauney, Jr. These facts are on the record in the Lincoln Co. Court House. An Ordinary was an inn where lodging, food, and drinks were supplied to patrons at prices fixed by law.

Christian Mauney was also overseer of a part of the public road from the court house to the Tuckaseege Ford of the Catawba River so his public duties required much of his time. After the court house was removed to Lincoln in 1783, he remained on his land and farmed. By trade he was a carpenter.

The given name of his wife was Caty, found on old deeds and in Christian's will, but her maiden name has not been verified. W. A. Mauney thought she may have been

History, Three Mauney Families

Caty Summy. Her burial place is not known and there are no records of her birth and death date, however, her name appears on an old deed drawn in 1818.

The Christian Mauney family was Lutheran in faith. He was bur. in the old Beaver Dam Meeting House Cemetery (Gaston Co., NC now) as were some of his children; and many members of his family were members of this congregation which later changed its name to St. Mark's Lutheran Church and moved to a more accessible location. The marker at his grave, a limestone slab, had this crude inscription:

C. M. 1815 Jan. 13 B N E 1741.

His will was proven at the January Quarters Sessions of Lincoln Co. Court, 1815.

There were twelve children in this family, six sons and six daughters. One son, Jacob, went to Ohio when a young man and was accompanied by three of his married sisters and their families. No further information has been secured on them.

Christian Mauney did not participate in the military efforts of the patriots during the Revolutionary War but there is no doubt of his civil service to the Cause of Freedom. In the NC State Historical Archives there are vouchers issued to him by the state for supplies furnished to the troops. One of these reads:

Revolutionary Army Accounts, Vol. XI, page 25, Folio 1, Christian Mauney (No. 144) £21 14 shillings, January 1779, for provisions.

Another voucher was included with application for D. A. R. membership.

In Lincoln Co., this is one of the records:

1782 Minute Docket, Ordered by the court that Christian Mauney be paid the sum of £25 specie for the use of his house as Court House of said County. (Lincoln)

Christian Mauney was a worthy pioneer and patriarch. He was a good public servant. He was a Patriot.

Hinnant (Virginia Summers) Mrs. L. E. - National No. 382,580 holds membership in the N. S. D. A. R. on the service and lineage records of Christian Mauney.

History, Three Mauney Families

Peter Mauney

5a Peter Mauney, son of Christian Mauney, b. 1790 d. 5-30-1840 bur. at Beaver Dam Cemetery m. 12-3-1810 Barbara Heavner, of Abraham, of Teeter Heavner. (surety John Eaker). Barbara H. Mauney b. 12-1-1788 d. 8-24-1874 bur. at St. Mark's. Their first home was near Christian Mauney's home (Tryon Court House). Later they moved to Cleveland County on Muddy Fork of Buffalo near Cherryville and Waco, NC This is now known as the David Mauney home place.

The family Bible, which I have, records the births of ten children; four of whom died in infancy. Peter was a farmer. Tradition pictures him as a large, robust man - very jovial and friendly, and exceedingly fond of children. Barbara, his wife, spoke German and read from her German Bible until her death.

History, Three Mauney Families

3b David Mauney b. 5-26-1814 d. 5-24-1900 m. 5-9-1838 Fannie Carpenter
b. 1-25-1813 d. 9-8-1908, daughter of Frederick Carpenter, of Peter.
Surety on the marriage bond was John Mauney. Their home was about three miles west of Cherryville toward Shelby, NC on Muddy Fork of Buffalo Creek. Both had only limited "old field" education. When they were married, David had no property, but he had a good mathematical mind and much business ability; so by hard work and thriftiness, practiced by both, they became helpful citizens in the community.

He was engaged in farming, saw-milling, and grist-milling. In his mature years, he became a sort of "one man" banker, loaning money to those who deserved financial assistance. He encouraged his sons to enter the textile business.

Both were Lutherans, having been confirmed at old Beaver Dam Church in Gaston County (by my maternal grandfather, Rev. Adam Miller). They were bur. in the cemetery at St. John's Lutheran Church, Cherryville, NC.

1c Wiley Alexander Mauney b. 7-17-1839 d. 10-17-1841

2c William Andrew Mauney b. 12-18-1841 d. 5-15-1929 m. (1) Susan Ramseur
b. 10-31-1841 d. 3-10-1886 m. 1868. m. (2) Candace V. Miller, daughter of Adam and Susan Carpenter Miller, b. 3-15-1860 d. 6-28-1954
m. 12-26-1894. After the Civil War, he and his brother Jacob settled where the town of Kings Mt. developed. They were among its founders. He and his family are bur. in Mountain Rest Cemetery, Kings Mt., NC.

History, Three Mauney Families

History, Three Mauney Families

Valentine Mauney

Valentine Mauney, one of the three Mauney brothers who came early to North Carolina, was the first to acquire land. In Mecklenburg County court house is recorded a deed of conveyance from Moses Moore, planter, to Valentine Mauney, weaver, of the county of Anson, dated 23 Nov. 1762 - 370 acres for 5 shillings sterling money, on the north side of Indian Creek being a south branch of the South Fork of the Catawba River, "yielding and paying therefor said yearly rent of one pepper corn on said 25th day of March next" - Deed Bk. 1-p. 579.

In the records of Tryon County (1768-1779) and, after that Lincoln Co., Valentine Mauney is mentioned frequently for various civic services performed. He was a member of Captain Carpenter's Company, Military Committee of Tryon; a member of the Committee of Public Safety for the county; a signer of "An Association" of freeholders of the county who united themselves to firmly resist by force British aggressions in defense of their natural Freedom and Constitutional Rights. (1775)

In 1779 he was named on the committee to select and purchase land for the county seat of the new county of Lincoln, and to contract for the erection of a court house, prison, and stocks. In 1780 he was a member of the General Assembly of NC from Lincoln Co..

Valentine Mauney acquired other tracts of land along the waters of Indian Creek to the north of his first purchase, and eventually these became the home sites of several of his sons. His home was on Indian Creek to the north of the present highway between Cherryville and Lincolnton, just west of Crouse and near Antioch Methodist Church. Many members of his family are bur. in the cemetery here as are Valentine and his wife Katharina. Valentine Mauney was born in 1737 and died in 1805. His wife, Katharina was born in 1739 and died in 1806.

He was sometimes referred to by the older folk as "Felty" Mauney - Felty being a nickname for Valentine. Circumstantial proof leads me to believe that Katharina Mauney was a Kiser before marriage, the daughter of the pioneer Lorentz Kiser (d. 1786) and his wife Sarah. There was either a very close friendship or kinship between the two families.

(Names in Kiser family repeated in the V. Mauney family - Sarah, Adam, George, Christian^(a), Witnesses to V. Mauney's will were George and Adam Kizer and Sarah, or Lark, Kizer.)

Adam Mooney

1a Adam Mooney, eldest son of Valentine and Catherine Mauney, b. 1760-65 d. 1818 m. 1780-85 Susannah b. d. (living in 1840)., wagon-maker, grist mill, etc. He was a large land owner - having received from NC grants alone, 561 A between 1791-98, In Rutherford Co. Courthouse, there are many records of land transaction, and his will. 1790 U. S. Census gives his family 1 male over 16, 3 males under 16, 1 female.

He lived on Mill branch of Indian Creek, first in Lincoln Co., but his will is recorded in Rutherford County. Evidently he must have been near the County Line between Lincoln and Rutherford. In deeds recorded in Lincoln, he signed his name in German - "Adarm Murni" - also Moani and Mooney. His will names 8 children but there must have been 2 older sons who already had received their inheritance.

Christian Mauney

4a Christian Mauney, son of Valentine, b. 1771 d. after Oct. 1840, on which date he witnessed a deed in Rutherford County. Information about him shows that. He was closely associated with his brother Adam in many business dealings. He had land transactions in Rutherford Co., in the same area where Adam lived and owned property. (Brushy Fork of 1st Broad River, Little Broad River, north side of Beatty's Fork, etc.) He witnessed many legal papers of Adam including the will, 1817. Some of many names connected with the two families were: Laswell, Hogue, Melton, Quin, and others.

He probably married twice. m. (1) m. (2) Ollive Hogue (Rutherford Co. Marriage Bond "Christa Mooney m. Ollive Hogue 1-16-1812. b. Frederick T. Alley") The information below is not authentic but probably could be a help in further searching for his family.

History, Three Mauney Families

- 8b Valentine Mauney b, d. after 1877 m. 8-2-1832 Mary A. E. Barry (Rutherford Co. Marriage Bond - s. John B. Miller) Tradition says he lived near Greenville, SC and Court Records show a Valentine A. Mauney there in 1850 and after. In 1850 he sold a lot "on Jail and Broad St. in the city";
"Valentine Mauney's wife, Mary A. E. Mauney, relinquished her interest of right of claim Oct. 3, 1850." On Aug. 2, 1877 - "I, George H. Mooney of County of Greenville, SC release to Florence V. (Virginia) Mooney Kinard my right and title (1/3 part) in that certain lot or parcel of land" in Greenville, 5/8 A. Florence V. Kinard of County of Newberry, SC agreed to provide home for their father during remainder of his natural life.
Could there have been a third child since George H. Mooney held only 1/3 part?

History, Three Mauney Families

11b Mark Mauney b, d. m. (1) 1-19-1824 (Lincoln Co. Marriage Bond)
s. Peter Mauney) Eve Dellinger b. 12-25-1802 d. 1884, bur. Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Lincoln Co., NC, After the birth of their third child, Mark left his wife and went with his sister-in-law, Sallie Dellinger, to Henderson Co., TN (Lexington is County seat.)
She returned to NC and married Nelson G. Williams 1-10-1837. The marriage bond is in Lincoln Co., NC. Eve D. Mauney also remarried (date not known) to Wylie B. Childers and lived in North Brook section of Lincoln Co.. She had children by this marriage, She is bur. at Mt. Zion Baptist Church (Hwy. 274). (Dr.) George Mauney, father of Mark, stated in his will that Mark and Sallie Dellinger had children, but the names were not learned. Mark made a trip to NC in 1844 when his father's estate was being settled (Division Book Lincoln Co.). Other court records are:

(Deed Bk. 40 p. 446, 1845) "Mark Mauney, Western District of TN, Henderson Co., leased to Peter Dellinger, n. side of George Mauney's Mill Creek, bounded by Adam Dellinger, Peter Dellinger and Joshua Beam - 3 years for $30.00"

(Deed Bk 42 - 1854) Mark Mauney gave power of attorney to Abraham Mauney, probably a son.

(Deed Bk. 43 -- 1854 p. 10 and p. 65) Mark, Sr., Mark, Jr., and Abraham Mauney to Charles Dellinger - "40 A. for $200.00"; and to John Beam on Beam's Mill Creek - "40 A. for $100.00."

It is supposed that Mark Mauney re-married in Tenn, as the records above show a son, Mark, Jr. Also the 1850 Census, Henderson Co., TN shows him with a large family - and his age given as 50 years, by trade a potter.

History, Three Mauney Families

Jacob Mauney

Jacob Mauney ("Jacob Moony, Jr.") was a brother of Valentine and Christian Mauney. His birth date is not known. He died in 1813 or shortly thereafter. He wrote his will July 3, 1812 and added a codicil Sept. 7, 1813. By trade he was a tanner. There are many records of land transactions in Lincoln Co. records, so he must have bought and sold land many times but he established his home in Lincoln Co. (now Gaston) about a mile or more west of the present Bethel Lutheran Church. Some of the original home site is still in the hands of descendants. The large log house built either by him or his son Abraham still stands. (Was being remodeled in 1956.)

He was one of the 49 signers of the Tryon Association, declaring for their rights, in August 1775. The 1790 Census listed his family as having - "1 male over 16, 3 under 16, and 7 females."

On July 14, 1938 I talked with "Uncle" Wes Mauney, a slave of Col. Abe Mauney (son of Jacob) who was almost 91 years old. "Uncle" Wes was just a baby when Col. Abe was 58 years old, so Wes played with, and was the age of Col. Abe's grandchildren. He told me Abraham Mauney's home was on the original tract of land owned by his father Jacob, but Jacob's home site was about $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ mile west of Abraham's.

Jacob Mauney operated a tan yard west of his home (near where Grat Mauney, Jr., grandson) later lived. Abraham had a tan yard near his dwelling, and "Little Abe," son of Abraham, later operated one here.

Col. Abraham had a shoemaker in his home named Flucker, an Englishman, who taught the Negroes to make shoes. Flucker and a McLelland baby were buried in the slave graveyard on the place, where Sam, the father of Wes, was also buried.

Col Abraham attended church at Hepzibah church and Kelly's Chapel where there was an old cemetery. He and his wife are bur. At St. Mark's.

Jacob Mauney's grave is unknown. There is an old burying ground near his home known as the Vickers graveyard. This or the others already mentioned may hold his remains, but I (B. M. S.) believe he is bur. In the old Beaver Dam Lutheran Church cemetery where there are markers for Christian Mauney, two of his sons and other kinsfolk, and where is buried Catherine Mauney, the daughter of Jacob Mauney, b. 1772 d. 1844, There are the signs of unmarked graves on either side of hers.

Jacob Mauney's wife was Nancy. She may have been an Eaker, or related to Eakers, because of the closeness of the Eakers to Jacob.

Wes Mauney, the slave, said Col. Abe had unmarried sisters, didn't know how many.

History, Three Mauney Families

Excerpts copied from Margaret Walker Freel's history "Our Heritage, The People of Cherokee Co., North Carolina, 1540-1955" - published by the Miller Printing Co., Asheville, NC

From Chapter 16, Cherokee County Family Bible, page 310

Mauney (E. S. Mauney) Isaac Mauney, who lived on Valley River at what is today the "Wood Place" was born in Tryon (now Lincoln) Co., NC His father was "Jacob Moony, Jr." a signer of Tryon County Declaration of Independence in August following Mecklenburg, in May 1775. Isaac married Sarah, daughter of George Rush (German descent) whose father, Charles Rush, first settled in Pennsylvania, thence to the Shenandoah Valley, Va. It is thought he came from Alsace-Lorraine.

In 1818, Isaac Mauney and family, together with his father-in-law, George Rush and clan, left Lincoln and came to Macon Co., NC, and about 1840 removed his family to Valley River, Cherokee County. This remained his home until his death in the 1870's.' There were seven children born to this union. Isaac married three times. "His second wife is known only as Karon. His third wife was Emily Armstrong from the East, who tradition has it, danced with Lafayette on his visit to the U. S. in 1824. No issue by either."

He was a farmer and owned a number of slaves before the War Between the States. After their freedom, for their faithfulness, some were given land high up on the Mauney plantation. Many members of his family are bur. with him and his three wives in the family plot on the plantation.

Many of his descendants have attained distinction in the fields of education, law, medicine, and public service, as well as in the humbler vocations of life.

In Chapter 9 of this same book, p. 135, is the Will of Isaac Mauney - dated Oct. 27, 1875 - "Isaac Mauney - being of sound mind - do make this my last will and Testament ...

Secondly, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Emily all my house- hold and kitchen furniture, all my hogs, cattle, horses, and other live stock and farming implements ...

Thirdly, I will and bequeath to my beloved sons Ambrose H. Mauney, Sylvanus Mauney, and George R. Mauney, to them and their heirs, all my real estate in the said county of Cherokee ...

Fourth, having heretofore advanced Negroes and other property to my son Luis Mauney and to my daughters Mrs. Celina Morrow, (dec'd) wife of E. G. Morrow, and Mary Malenda, wife or widow of Alexander Angel, (dec'd), I hereby declare that they and each of them are not entitled to anything more of my estate, nor their heirs.

History, Three Mauney Families

Lastly, I hereby will and appoint my trusty friends Ambrose H. Mauney and Joseph Keener to execute ...

Isaac Mauney

History, Three Mauney Families

Jacob Mauney

9a Jacob Mauney b. abt. 1785+ d. 1827 m. Susan (na) Jenkins, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Hambright Jenkins. After marriage they settled on Crooked Run Creek between Knob Creek and Broad River in Rutherford County - now Cleveland County. This is about halfway between Lincolnton and Rutherfordton near the present town of Lawndale.

He operated an inn and livery stable for the benefit of travelers during the stagecoach days. He also operated a tanyard, a grist mill and a liquor distillery. Kistler's Church stands at a distance of about a city block from the location of these old plants. He owned twenty (20) slaves and about two thousand (2000) acres of land, most of it acquired by State Grants or from the King of England.

He died in 1827 when about forty (40) years of age. He and his wife were bur. On a little round knoll on the west side of Crooked Run Creek near the old residence location. They have no tombstones. He was attended by a Dr. Mauney (Dr. George of Valentine) from Lincoln Co. during his last illness. His will was written by Esquire Lucas while he was dying. Peter Mauney was a minor at his father's death and his guardian was a Mr. Newton. Peter was the only son. Six daughters are mentioned in the will. Annah, who married Jacob Carpenter, was not mentioned but she is given in all lists of his children. (See "Our Kin" page 506) Information of the above was supplied by Mr. P. Marvin Mauney, grandson of Peter and son of Isaac. He worked in Kings Mt. and boarded at our home when I was a child. (B. M. S.) Will on record in Rutherford Co., Oct.- Nov. 1827.

History, Three Mauney Families

Mary Mauney

10a Mary Mauney b. d. m. John Carpenter In "Counting Kindred" by E. E. Deppen, Mary is given as probably married to John Carpenter, son of Peter. Mary and her husband John Carpenter are buried at Antioch Methodist Cemetery near Crouse, NC The inscription says "Mary Carpenter died Jan. 3, 1844 aged 76 years" - therefore born in 1768. I do not think that Jacob Mauney had a child born as early as 1768. Because of her place of listing in Jacob's will, I think she was one of the younger children. However, a list of the descendants of John Carpenter and Mary Carpenter can be found in "Counting Kindred" (E. E. Deppen) pages 233-238. John Carpenter - a son of Peter Carpenter and Barbara Deppen Carpenter.

History, Three Mauney Families

Sarah Mauney

12a Sarah Mauney b. d. No record. In Jacob Mauney's will, he speaks of his "daughters living at home" - also he leaves to Catherine Mauney, Elizabeth Mauney, and Sarah Mauney, the black mare. Probably all three were unmarried.
