Court of pleas and quarter sessions

March term A. D. 1866

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of MATHIAS BRYAN deceased is exhibited for probate in open court by A. J. HARRELL, his executor therein named, and due execution thereof by the said MATHIAS BRYAN is proved by the oath and examination of C. G. C. MOORE and ROBERT OUTLAND the subscribing witnesses. It is therefore considered by the court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said MATHIAS BRYAN and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed and therefore the said A. J. HARRELL executor as aforesaid, duly qualifies as such by taking the oath required by law, and is appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the xxx value of said estate is not more than six thousand dollars, this probate is stamped to the amount of three dollars according to law.
