Judge WYLIE

Dear sir:

I send my nephew CHURCHILL JONES with the will of ROBERT KERR which I wish to set aside if I can. It has but two witnesses, and the law requires three, and on that ground I propose to break it, ROBERT KERR was my relation and tenant he died last XXX having a wife and no children and he died last Thursday, leaving a wife and no children, and she died last Monday.

HYDEN A. DAVIE who is the only one to make the wills stand good is anxious have the matter concluded, if the will can be broke and the estate disposed of as soon as possible.

The widow has no relatives here she had some in North Carolina but I believe they have left the state.

I want to sell the property as soon as I return from the legislature and wish you to take all the measures they can be taken in my absence. I think you must issue a XXX notifying those concerned to appear before you either concur or make their objections to the breaking of the will.

I can and will appear, by attorney if one is necessary, but you know the ground on which I provided, it's to what I am to do.

Write me instructions and I will follow them. The notice of the sale of the property could be published as that it might take XXX the all of January XXX and could give land and home valuation at my XXX preceeding the sale.

My business urges me so at this time that I would not leave without great inconvenience as I also set out on Friday with Mr. Colombia.

Yours with great respect
